

Save the Date - VCU Research Services Day!

January 29, 2009

8:30 am to 3:00 pm

Tompkins-McCaw Library

509 N. 12th Street

The VCU Libraries, Technology Services, and the Office of Research present Research Services Day in recognition of the growing research enterprise at Virginia Commonwealth University. This event will highlight the vast array of resources available at VCU to support YOUR research.

Program includes:

- Presentations on the ethics of publishing, online searching for research funding, overview of library resources to support researchers, and an overview of computing resources to support research.
- New Authors Mentoring Panel where VCU authors will engage in a discussion about the research dissemination and publication process.
- Exhibitor's showcase highlighting resources and services available for researchers on both the MCV and Monroe Park Campuses.
- Demo of newly released JMP® 8 – statistical discovery software. Come find out what's new in JMP ® 8.

Lunch will be provided and is sponsored by

For more information call 804-828-0017. This event is free and open to the public.

Registration required at: www.library.vcu.edu/events/rday/

This event is sponsored by the VCU Libraries, Technology Services, and the Office of Research