

Technology Days 2008 @ VCU

RA Contest

About Technology Days

Technology Days 2008 brings the latest in information technology developments for the classroom and research to VCU. Thinking about purchasing a PDA, a BlackBerry, a cellphone, or an iPod? Want to learn how others are using emerging technologies to streamline their research, workflow, patient interactions, and educational experience? Technology Days 2008 @ VCU can help you investigate solutions and try hands-on demonstrations of helpful new products.
