VCU Libraries’ Lost and Found

VCU Libraries provides a lost and found service in James Branch Cabell Library on the Monroe Park Campus and in the Health Sciences Library on the medical campus. The Code of Virginia § 23.1-104 (Disposition of lost or abandoned property) requires that most items accepted into the university’s Lost and Found be kept for a minimum of 120 days if not claimed. Exemptions are specified below.

Lost and Found Items in Cabell Library:

All items brought to the Information Desk in Cabell Library will be placed in a secure location with a note attached indicating the date and location where the item was found (if known). If the owner is known, library staff will send an email to their VCU email address to inform them about the lost item.

Looking for an Item?

To inquire about a lost item that may be in our lost and found:

1) Visit the Information Desk in Cabell Library to inquire if the lost item has been turned into the library.
2) Call the Cabell Library Information Desk at (804) 828-1111
3) Contact us via our chat/text service
4) Submit a lost item request form

Note: Individuals may describe the item that they have lost to a staff member at the Information Desk who will then check the lost and found inventory. Patrons can also submit information about their lost item to the online form so that staff can contact them if their item is turned in.
Items of value that will be kept for 48 hours and then picked up by VCU Police Department:

- Computers and other electronics
